4. 37 CFR 1.78(b) provides that when two or more applications filed by the same applicant contain conflicting claims, elimination of such claims from all but one application may be required in the absence of good and sufficient reason for their retention during pendency in more than one application. The attached Appendix provides clear evidence that such conflicting claims exist between the 329 related co-pending applications identified above. However, an analysis of all claims in the 329 related co-pending applications would be an extreme burden on the Office requiring millions of claim comparisons.

In order to resolve the conflict between applications, applicant is required to either:

- (1) file terminal disclaimers in each of the related 329 applications terminally disclaiming each of the other 329 applications, or;
- (2) provide an affidavit attesting to the fact that all claims in the 329 applications have been reviewed by applicant and that no conflicting claims exists between the applications. Applicant should provide all relevant factual information including the specific steps taken to insure that no conflicting claims exist between the applications, or;
- (3) resolve all conflicts between claims in the above identified 329 applications by identifying how all the claims in the instant application are distinct and separate inventions from all the claims in the above identified 329 applications (note: the five examples in the attached Appendix are merely illustrative of the overall problem. Only correcting the five identified conflicts would not satisfy the requirement).

Failure to comply with the above requirement will result in abandonment of the application.

INFORMATION DISCLOSURE STATEMENTS

5. Receipt is acknowledged of applicant's Information Disclosure Statements filed on January 30, 1996; February 1, 1996; April 5, 1996; and April 7, 1997. In view of the unusually large number of references cited in the instant application (approximately 2,200 originally and 645 in the subsequent IDS) and the failure of applicant to point out why such a large number of references is warranted, these references have been considered in accordance with 37 C.F.R. 1.97 and 1.98 to the best ability by the examiner with the time and resources available.

The foreign language references cited therein where there is no statement of relevance or no translation are not in compliance with 37 C.F.R. 1.98 and have not been considered. Numerous references listed in the IDS are subsequent to applicant's latest effective filing date of 9/11/87, therefore, the relevancy of these references is unclear. Also cited are numerous references that are apparently unrelated to the subject matter of the instant invention such as: US Patent # 33,189 directed toward a beehive, GB 1565319 directed toward a chemical compound, a cover sheet with only the word "ZING", a computer printout from a library search with the words "LST" on it and a page of business cards including that of co-inventor James Cuddihy, among others. The relevancy of these references cannot be ascertained. Furthermore, there are several database search results listed in foreign languages (such as German) which list only the title and document information; no copy has been provided, therefore, these references have not been considered.

CLAIM REJECTIONS - 35 USC § 112

6. Claims 2-11 and 14-22 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as containing subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention.

37 C.F.R. 1.75(d)(1) requires that:

“the terms and the phrases used in the claims must find clear support or antecedent basis in the description so that the meaning of the terms in the claims may be ascertainable by reference to the description”.

The following limitations were not supported by the specification as originally filed:

In claim 2, “a controller operatively connected to said processor, said controller receiving said information transmission from said processor and detecting the status of a television display, said processor receiving status information from said controller about said television display, said processor at least one of routing and actuating said video storage device to store a selected portion of said information transmission depending on the status of said television display”.

Art Unit: 2742

Claim 3, “processing said event signal based on said step of locating said event signal”.

Claim 10, “informing said programmable receiver station of a variable event location”.

Claim 14, “informing said television receiver station of at least one of: (1) a television program of interest, said television program designated by at least one of a title and subject matter” and “determining said television monitor is not outputting at least a portion of said received television program”.

Claim 17, “informing said television receiver station of at least one of: (1) at least one of a title and subject matter of at least said portion of said television programming” and “determining said television monitor is not outputting said at least said portion of said television programming based on said step of informing said television receiver station”.

Claim 18, “storing operating instructions at a remote data source, said operating instructions enabling said receiver station to detect and react to one of the presence and the absence of said event signal”; “transmitting said operating instructions from said remote data source to said receiver station in response to said step of receiving said query, said receiver station selecting and storing at least some of said operating instructions”; and “transmitting from a second remote source to said receiver station a signal which controls said receiver station to at least one of locate and process to said event signal based on said operating instructions”.

Claim 19, “receiving at a transmitter station said at least one digital instruct signal which is operative at said at least one receiver station to react to one of the presence and the absence of an event signal and delivering said at least one digital instruct signal to a transmitter”; and

“receiving at a transmitter station at least one digital control signal which, at the receiver station, operates to communicate said at least one digital instruct signal to said at least one processor”.

CLAIM REJECTIONS - 35 USC § 102

7. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless --

(e) the invention was described in a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent, or on an international application by another who has fulfilled the requirements of paragraphs (1), (2), and (4) of section 371© of this title before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent.

8. Claims 2-22 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being clearly anticipated by Yarbrough et al. (Yarbrough; 4,598,288; cited by the applicants in the IDS of January 30, 1996).

The entire patent to Yarbrough plainly teaches the claimed method of processing signals at a receiver station in order to automatically tune and record television programming. The claimed remote source and the transmitter have to be inherent since the programming needs to be transmitted from somewhere.

Response to Arguments

9. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 2-22 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.
